

How to Choose a Retirement Community...

- Find out what retirement communities are located in the area where you or your relative(s) prefer to live.
- Interview key staff, including marketing, directors, dietary, housekeeping, and transportation managers to name a few.
- Tour the property to assess the living conditions, safety features and handicap accessibility.
- Become informed about services, amenities and continuum of care.
- Communicate with the residents, their families, and friends. Plan an overnight stay at the facility.
